

Entry Application Categories for delegations.

Before the competition, the entry application process for delegations is classified into three categories, as outlined below:

1. Visa-Exempt Entry

Competitors from visa-free countries may enter with a valid passport. Please ensure that the passport is valid for the required period and check the visa-free duration. Refer to the VISA information for entry categories of visa-exempt countries. For countries with a 14-day visa-free entry, if the stay exceeds 14 days, please follow the (project) e-visa application process.

For more details for Visa-Exempt Entry, please visit the Bureau of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs: (<https://www.boca.gov.tw/cp-149-4486-7785a-2.html>)

2. e-Visa

The list of eligible countries can be found in the VISA Information for entry categories of e-Visa countries. Participants from these countries can apply for an e-visa online.

- The e-Visa is valid for 3 months, and applicants must ensure their passport is valid for at least 6 months at the time of application.
- Entry must be completed within the e-visa validity period.
- It is recommended that delegations apply for an e-visa starting September 2025 to ensure sufficient validity.
- Carefully read the instructions on the official website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to avoid application errors that could result in rejection.
Rejected applications are non-refundable.

For more details on e-visas, please visit the Bureau of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs:(<https://www.boca.gov.tw/cp-181-4493-881cd-2.html>)

3. e-Visa (with e-Visa assistance)

Available to nationals who do not qualify for Visa-Exempt Entry or the standard e-Visa categories.

Application Procedure for e-Visa Assistance:

- (1) By the end of July, delegations must confirm whether they require the e-Visa assistance for e-Visa application. (Instead, delegations may apply for the appropriate visa at Chinese Taipei overseas missions)
- (2) Upon approval, delegations will receive an invitation letter from the organizer starting October 2025. Using the E-code provided in the invitation letter, delegations should then complete and submit the eVisa application form online: <https://visawebapp.boca.gov.tw>.
 - The e-Visa is valid for 3 months, and applicants must ensure their passport is valid for at least 6 months at the time of application.
- (3) Applicants must pay the required visa fees during the online application process. Please refer to the Bureau of Consular Affairs website for visa fees: <https://www.boca.gov.tw/cp-160-7204-78395-2.html>. Please read the official application instructions carefully to avoid errors that may result in rejection. Rejected applications are non-refundable. Once the application is approved, applicants will receive an email with the visa approval notice and a link to print the e-visa.
 - When checking in for the flight, the eVisa holder is required to present a printed e-Visa and the official invitation letter issued by the organizer for verification.
